Numb. 1705

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 5. 1740. No 1703.

Remainder of the Extracts from the Will of Ferdinand I.

UT if, which God forbid, it ſhould pleaſe the Almighty that our well-beloved Conſort, and all our dear Sons, ſhould die without Lawful Deſcendants, one of our ſurviving Daughters ſhall ſucceed in Quality of Lawful Heireſs to the ſaid Kingdoms of Hungary and Bohemia and [illegible] Dependencies: And tho' ſome Years ago we [illegible]ently gave an Acknowledgment to the States of [illegible] Crown of Bohemia, that the Daughters had no [illegible]ght to inherit the ſaid Kingdom, yet it ſince appears [illegible] and manifeſt from the Ancient, Laudable Liber[illegible] of our ſaid Kingdom, and particularly from the Bull [illegible] the late Emperor Charles, that on Failure of the [illegible] Iſſue the Royal Daughters were capable of the [illegible]ion, and ought to be admitted to it: Therefore [illegible]ort and intreat the ſaid States of the Crown of [illegible]ia, and our Kingdoms, Countries, and Subjects, [illegible]member their Obligation, viz. That in this Caſe [illegible] ought to receive and acknowledge one of our [illegible]ters for their Sovereign, and no other Maſter, [illegible] that they ought to pay her entire Obedience, and [illegible]behave to her as Faithful Subjects.

—On the contrary, her Imperial Majeſty and our [illegible] Sons ſhall be obliged to give and furniſh to our [illegible] Daughters the Dowry and Settlement above-men[illegible]d, and moreover they ſhall immediately grant to [illegible]e of our Daughters that ſhall be ſtill alive, exclu[illegible]ve of her who ſhall ſucceed to and poſſeſs our King[illegible]s, the Sum of 300000 Rheniſh Florins, for the [illegible]ds that are not Fiefs, and for all their Prerogatives, [illegible]ſdictions, and Pretenſions. But as to the Jewels, [illegible]ſe, and other Goods and Moveables, they ſhall be[illegible]ng by Right of Inheritance, and ſhall be deliver'd to [illegible] Daughters; and if any one of theſe, after having [illegible]eived ſuch Dowry and Dividend, whether marry'd [illegible] not, happens to die without Lawful Deſcendants, [illegible]r Siſters or their Deſcendants ſhall inherit the [illegible]hole as by Right. If it happens thro' Providence, [illegible]at his Imperial Majeſty, our moſt dear Brother and [illegible]Lord, die without Male Deſcendants, or elſe that his [illegible]Male Line prove extinct with them, then our Auſtrian [illegible]Countries and Dominions ſhall fall to, and be inherited [illegible], the Perſon to whom of Right it belongs.

No. III. Extract of King Ferdinand's Codicil, dated Feb. 4. 1547.

—Paternal Love alſo obliges us to advertiſe our [illegible]well dear Sons, that ſome Years ago, at the Beginning [illegible]our Reign in Bohemia, upon the repeated Inſtances [illegible]of the States of that Crown, and being ignorant of its [illegible]true fundamental Conſtitution, we gave a ſolemn Ac[illegible]knowledgment to the States of our ſaid Kingdom of Bo[illegible]mia, that they had elected and received us King of [illegible]their own full and free Will. But ſome time after, [illegible]when we came to examine the Liberties and Preroga[illegible]tives of our Kingdom of Bohemia, and in particular the [illegible]Deed of our Predeceſſor of laudable Memory, the Em[illegible]peror Charles IV. it evidently and inconteſtably ap[illegible]pear'd from thence, that our ſaid Kingdom of Bohemia [illegible]never ought to revert to the Election of the States when [illegible]there are Male or Female Deſcendants of the Royal [illegible]Blood, but that it ought to paſs and appertain to the [illegible]Children of the Blood Royal who are then living. In [illegible]conſequence we ſollicited the States of the ſaid King[illegible]dom to ſuch a Degree, that they gave us back the Ac[illegible]knowledgement aforeſaid, and own'd that the ſaid King[illegible]dom was devolv'd not by way of Election, but by way [illegible]of legal Succeſſion, to our well-beloved Conſort of glo[illegible]rious Memory as to their hereditary Queen and Sove[illegible]reign, and that thro' her the ſaid Kingdom came to us. [illegible]We thought it therefore neceſſary, that their Dilections [illegible]ſhould be inform'd of all this, and that it would be for [illegible]their Advantage to regulate themſelves accordingly. [illegible]And as we have diſpos'd and order'd in our ſaid Will, [illegible]that if all our dear Sons, which God forbid, ſhould die [illegible]without lawful Heirs, then one of our Daughters ſhould [illegible]ſucceed to and poſſeſs our Kingdoms of Hungary and [illegible]Bohemia as lawful Heireſs, we adhere to the ſaid Diſ[illegible]poſition, with this expreſs Declaration, that in ſuch Caſe [illegible]our ſaid two Kingdoms of Hungary and Bohemia, with [illegible]the Dominions thereon depending, ſhall be inherited and [illegible]poſſeſs'd by the eldeſt of our Daughters who ſhall at that time be living. And as we have agreed and ſettled in our ſaid Will how all our dear Daughters ought to be endow'd, and what ought to be given to each in Jewels and Moveables, we alſo abide by that Diſpoſition, with this farther Addition and Diſpoſition nevertheleſs, that at the amicable Requeſt of our late well-beloved Conſort of laudable Memory, we mean, will, and order by theſe Preſents, that there be given and paid to our dear Daughter Catherine in Jewels or Furniture 10000 Florins more than were aſſign'd to our other Daughters. And as we marry'd our dear Daughters Ann and Mary in the Year Forty-ſix without having yet paid them their Portion, having nevertheleſs promiſed their Dilections to pay it or to procure it to be furniſh'd or given them in the Space of two Years, 'tis our paternal Will and Pleaſure that, if God diſpoſe of our Life before their Dilections have been entirely ſatisfy'd in the Article of their Portion, our dear Sons ſhall forthwith pay the Amount thereof to our ſaid dear Daughters.

NOTICE is given,

From the eldeſt Regiſter-Office, appointed for dividing Tickets into Shares, which is now ſituated directly behind the King on Horſeback at Charing-Croſs, and kept By Mr. FRANCIS WILSON,

THAT Tickets are there ſold on the moſt reaſonable Conditions, and divided into Shares of all Sorts, (in 500 different ones if requir'd) after a Method very advantageous to the Purchaſers, as by it Adventurers are equally ſecure, and cannot well fail of Four or more Prizes, for a little more than the Value of a whole Ticket. Notwithſtanding the great Expence and Care taken to render his Regiſter the moſt correct (by having two Clerks at the Place of drawing) Adventurers may there enter the Numbers of their Tickets at Six-pence each, and have the earlieſt Accounts of the Succeſs or Loſs ſent them to any Part of the World. It is well known he has hitherto in all former Lotteries been fortunate enough to diſpoſe of, or ſhare perhaps more large Prizes, than all the publick Offices put together.

P. S. To prevent Impoſitions of all Kinds, Tickets ſold at my Office are endors'd on the Back ſide with my own Hand, and all Liſts of Tickets examin'd there will be ſign'd

Dr. ROBERT EATON's

BALSAMICK STYPTICK.

Truly prepared and ſold at the Doctor's late Dwelling Houſe, now Mr. DUTTON's in Salisbury Court, Fleet-ſtreet.

THIS Medicine reſtrains in a moſt ſurprizing Manner, all internal as well as external Hemorrhages, i.e. it infallibly and quickly ſtops all dangerous Bleedings at the Noſe or Gums, ſpitting or vomiting Blood; alſo the immoderate Flux of the Hemorrhoides or Menſes; bloody Urine or Stools, bleeding of large Wounds, &c. (if uſed according to the plain Directions given with it) as will appear by the Certificates of ſeveral Eminent Phyſicians, and in the large Account of this Medicine, written by the Doctor himſelf, and dedicated to the College of Phyſicians, a little before his Death.

It keeps good for many Years, at Sea or on Shoar, at Home or Abroad, i. e. in all Climates, therefore muſt be univerſally Uſeful.

The Doctor not only obtained his Majeſty's Letters Patent for the ſole Vending of this moſt Excellent Medicine; but alſo a Clauſe in a late Act of Parliament, exempting this Medicine from the Inſpection of the Cenſors of the College of Phyſicians, to which all other Medicines are liable.

N. B. Some of the Apothecaries prepare a Styptick from a Preſcription of Helvetius, and uſe it in the Room of Dr. EATON's; but whoever tries both, will ſoon be perſuaded that Our's exceeds their's in all Reſpects, in a moſt eminent Degree.

The only true Specifick Tincture

For the TOOTH-ACH, and all Diſorders and Defects of the TEETH and GUMS whatever, which has given ſuch entire Satisfaction to the Nobility and Gentry for above Twenty Years paſt, by its vaſtly excelling all other Things, ever formerly invented or lately contrived for theſe Purpoſes;

SINCE one Drop of it gives infallible and inſtant Eaſe in the moſt tormenting Pain, when nothing elſe will, and not only takes it away in a Moment, but abſolutely cures the TOOTH-ACH, ſo as certainly to prevent its Return.

At only once uſing it makes the foulеſt Teeth moſt beautifully white, aſturedly faſtens thoſe that are looſe, and infallibly preſerves the Teeth from growing rotten, and thoſe a little decay'd, from becoming worſe: It perfectly cures the Scurvy in the Gums, cauſing them to grow up to the Teeth again to Admiration, and alſo occaſions a Sweet Breath.

It is neither diſagreeable to the Smell or Taſte, but effectually preſerves the Teeth and Gums from all Manner of Putrid Corruption, and Putrefaction, keeps them ſound, good, and in moſt beautiful Order, and may be depended upon to anſwer the Character here given of it, literally, and in every Reſpect as Perſons innumerable have experienc'd.

But theſe inimitable Qualities, and ſolely inherent Virtues by which it has juſtly gain'd ſuch an univerſal and unparallel'd great character, have occaſion'd, as uſual in ſuch caſes, various and frequent Endeavours to mimick it, ſome under the ſame Name and in the very Words of this Advertiſement, and others under other Names; be careful, therefore, to have the right, which may be infallibly relied upon, and which is to be had only by the Author's Appointment, of the Gentlewoman, at the Two Blue-Poſts, in Haydon-Yard, in the Minories, London, at 2s. 6d a Bottle, with Directions.

Good Allowance to thoſe who take Quantities for Exportation.

An Infallible REMEDY

For BROKEN-WINDED HORSES,

WHich has been publiſhed and ſold many Years before any Counterfeits in other Forms appeared; and highly commended from one Friend to another. The vaſt Quantities that have been ſold alſo verify its Efficacy and Virtues, for it moſt perfectly cures them, after all others Means have been ineffectual, to a Wonder, in a ſmall time, without Confinement; by attenuating and opening the Globules of the Lungs dried up, and all the Paſſages obſtructed by Humours dripping thereon, occaſion'd by hard Riding, Colds, &c. It cauſes preſently a free Perſpiration, renewing its Force, Vigour and Length again, as well as ever.

It immediately cures thoſe Horſes only a little touch'd in their Wind, as alſo all continued Coughs, Colds, Wheezing, &c. being excellent in preventing many other Diſtempers incident unto them, by maintaining, preſerving, and continuing a good Breath.

And in a word, by this very Medicine alone, many Horſes have been made ſo perfectly ſound, that they have been ſold and valued from 10 to 30 or 40 Pounds, which by being Broken-winded, could not before be ſold for 3 or 4 Pounds.

It is ſold at Mr. Sandwell's Toy-Shop at the Griffin, the Corner of Buckler's-Bury in the Poultry, at 2 s. 6 d the Quart Bottle, with Directions for taking it; and no where elſe in England.

LONDON: Printed for T. COOPER, at the Globe in Pater-noſter Row.
